

ADVANCED TRAINING FOR VIDEO EXAMINERS

Advanced Forensic Video Examination & Analysis

For professionals who examine video evidence and want to expand their analytical capabilities for complex investigations and courtroom presentation. Learn the advanced workflows and techniques behind reliable, scientifically sound video evidence analysis.

SESSION 1 • ONLINE

October 20–22, 2026

Tuesday – Thursday

Register for October →

SESSION 2 • ONLINE

December 1–3, 2026

Tuesday – Thursday

Register for December →24

Hours of recognized LEVA training credit on successful completion, applicable toward recertification.

Course Topics // 09 MODULES

- 01 Advanced forensic video examination workflows
- 02 Understanding and interpreting embedded metadata
- 03 Frame-level metadata analysis using real-world case examples
- 04 Time-interval calculations derived from metadata analysis
- 05 How visual evidence, audio evidence, and metadata relate
- 06 Reverse-projection analysis using overlay comparison techniques
- 07 Developing meaningful, reliable technical and analytical exhibits
- 08 Producing professional reports and courtroom exhibits
- 09 Presenting video findings effectively in legal proceedings

PREREQUISITES • MEMBERSHIPLEVA membership is not required.

Who should attend?

- ☐ Anyone examining video evidence in criminal or civil investigations
- ☐ Investigators and analysts preparing timing-interval reports
- ☐ Professionals conducting reverse projections or comparative video examinations
- ☐ Analysts involved in speed estimation from video
- ☐ Personnel investigating officer-involved shootings (OIS) and human-performance timing in use-of-force cases

Results other experts can rely on

Support the specialists who depend on video evidence:

- ☐ Accident reconstruction specialists
- ☐ Use-of-force investigators
- ☐ Biomechanics experts
- ☐ Human performance analysts
- ☐ Crime scene reconstruction teams

PREREQUISITES • RECOMMENDED

A basic understanding of digital multimedia evidence (DME), metadata, and video processing.

Reserve your seat

Join us for three days of advanced training focused on strengthening your ability to analyze, interpret, document, and present complex video evidence.

Waiting on funding approval? If you can't get funding approved in time but still want to attend, contact Video Consultants NW LLC at vcnw@comcast.net or 253.381.5300.